

Guided wildflower and butterfly walk at Southwick Hill

Saturday 5th August- 10am-12:30pm

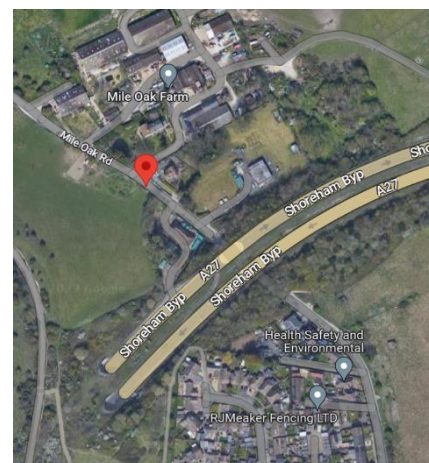

Join the rangers and local experts for a summertime walk on the lookout for the wonderful butterflies and wildflowers of the chalk grassland.

All ages welcome. No booking or fee required.

Please dress appropriately for the weather and terrain. We will be walking on rough farmland tracks and steep slopes at points.

Meeting at the donkey field, Mile Oak Farm, BN41 2RF.

For more information, please contact Kim Greaves, ChalkLife Ranger, National Trust via email: kim.greaves@nationaltrust.org.uk

Part of

Changing Chalk
connecting nature, people and heritage

Led by

National Trust

Made possible with

Heritage Fund

